ANTICIPATE MOVE ON WARSAW BY THE GERMANS

Petrograd Strategists Unite in Belief That Przasnysz and Novogorod Will Be Bases for Attack.

Petrograd, Feb. 26, (12:08 p. m., via London, 1:15 p. m.)—Members of the staff of the Russian army, commenting on the recent military developments in northern Poland, agree that from Przasnysz and Novogorod, the Germans hope to develop a movement upon Warsaw. (Przasnysz is the town north of Warsaw and about fifteen miles south of the East Prussian frontier, which Berlin declared yesterday had been captured by German). This movement is being anticipated, in their opinion, by the recommendation of an energetic offensive in the vicinity of Mogheli.

Against this powerful German advance, which evidently has assumed larger proportions than any previous movement in Russian Poland, the Russians had three strong lines of defense. The first runs from Kovno to Ostia, the latter town being on the Niemen river, thirty miles south of Kovno. The second runs from Ostia to Grodno, and the third line is known as the Bobr-Narew line.

The German advance against these defensive lines is proceeding slowly on account of the muddy country and the precautions necessary in order to keep open communication with the German bases.

There have been attacks in the neighborhood of Stabine, conducted with great energy and daring. This fighting has been virtually uninterrupted and it invariably has seen long and engagements in which the Russians have become very skillful. There has been increased activity, apparently, in eastern Galicia, where the Germans have been checked in their efforts to reach Helica.

SINISTER "13" IN TRAGIC DEATH OF FRED REED

Second Member of Party to Meet a Violent End; Body Shipped to Toledo for Burial.

The body of Fred Reed, who was killed instantly in an automobile accident on the mesa Tuesday afternoon, was shipped on the Eastern express this afternoon for Toledo, O., for burial. His mother lives in Toledo.

According to a friend of the young man today the sinister "13" superstition figured in Reed's death. Several weeks ago, it was said, he was one of thirteen young men who took part in a pool game. Superstitious members of the party noted the ill-omened number of players. Since the game two of the players have met tragic deaths. Harry Fourcette, who was killed by a Santa Fe train, was named as the other victim. He remained eleven members of the party are said to be in a state of dread for fear the supposed hoodoo has not worked out its evil influence to the full.

BOOSTER VANGUARD GOES TO EL PASO TOMORROW

Colonel Sellers Will Head a Skirmishing Party in the Campaign for the 1916 Cattlemen's Meeting.

The special train to El Paso having been assured, the convention committee of the Commercial club, which is trying to land the cattlemen's meeting of 1916 for this city, is devoting itself now to details of the campaign at the Paso City where the Panhandle and Southwestern association will meet next week.

As an advance guard of the boosters from Albuquerque, Col. D. K. B. Sellers, Thomas Ross and George Arnet will go to El Paso tomorrow. They will scout around and start the skirmish that is to precede the battle for the convention. Amarillo, Tex., Oklahoma City, Okla., and Roswell are after the convention.

The entrance of Roswell into the fight may have a tendency to divide the boosters of the state who hitherto have all been counted upon for Albuquerque. What effect Roswell will have on Albuquerque's campaign cannot, of course, be told at this time.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

YALE ALUMNI PLAN FOR STATEWIDE ORGANIZATION

Sons of Eli in This City Take Lead in Movement; Meeting Will Be Held Here Shortly.

Steps are being taken here to organize a New Mexico Yale alumni association. Virtually all the other states have a Yale association.

There are in this city ten alumni of Yale. They are taking the lead in the organization movement. A meeting will be held here shortly, at which an association will be launched.

One of the objects of the organization will be to encourage boys to go to Yale. Some of the Yale associations in other states help deserving boys to go to the university and in time the proposed New Mexico association may be strong enough financially to do that too.

BLOOD INTRODUCES BILL TO CREATE AN OFFICIAL N. M. FLAG

Santa Fe, N. M., Feb. 26.—Mr. Blood of Las Vegas has introduced in the house the following bill to create the official state flag of New Mexico: Whereas, since the admission of New Mexico into the union of states, the state is entitled to an official flag carrying suitable emblems; and, whereas, such a flag has been designed and is presented to the legislature of New Mexico herewith for its consideration and approval:

Now, therefore, be it enacted by the legislature of the state of New Mexico:

Section 1. A flag or banner with a turquoise blue field emblematic of the blue skies of New Mexico; a flag of the United States of America in miniature in the upper left hand corner of the field, designating the loyalty of our people; in the upper right hand corner the figures "47," the forty-seventh star and state in the American union; in the lower right hand corner the great seal of the state of New Mexico; and upon the field running from the lower left to the upper right hand corner in white the words "New Mexico," be and the same hereby is adopted as the state flag or banner of New Mexico.

Sec. 2. That the embroidered flag attached to this bill be deposited with the secretary of state of New Mexico, there to be safely kept by him in the archives of the state.

DEMPWOLF FREED UNDER A $1,000 BAIL BOND

Bail, Fixed by Grand Jury at Time of Indictment, Regarded as Too Low by the Sheriff's Office.

Under $1,000 bail, Theodore Dempwolf, charged with kidnapping his baby son from his divorced wife last spring, was released from the county jail today. Dempwolf is under indictment and the grand jury fixed his bond at the time the bill was returned. He was then a fugitive.

As told, Dempwolf has refused to make any statement regarding the case, leaving the fate of the child wrapped in mystery. There is an unconfirmed report that he died in Arkansas, but the county authorities in view of Dempwolf's refusal to talk and the absence of proof of death, have a strong suspicion that the baby has been placed in concealment to prevent the wife from obtaining possession of it.

Because of the nature of the case the sheriff's office is not satisfied with the amount of the bond. It is felt that the bail should be higher to insure Dempwolf's appearance. His mother is one of the three people on his bond.

CHILD ILLUSTRATES ALLEGED STABBING IN PANTOMIME

Sister Says Father Was Killed in Battle, But Clemencia Aguires Sticks to Story; Mother Better.

That her father was killed in a Mexican battle and not by her stepfather, as asserted by her younger sister, is the statement made by Isabel Aguires, 13-year-old daughter of Manuela Calderon, who was found starving at a house in San Jose the day before yesterday. The younger child, Clemencia, sticks to her story of the killing, which she says took place in Arizona during the family's wanderings. She told Undersheriff Dick Lewis that her father was stabbed, and illustrated the stabbing in pantomime. She grasped an imaginary knife and lunged forward with

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonials letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.
PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I over-worked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend; when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. Richmond, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N. Y.
PERU, N. Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. Maria Irwin, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N. Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.
SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., 100 CENTRE STREET, LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

the characteristic motion of the practiced knife fighter.

Pedro Aguires, the man, is locked up in the county jail on a charge of vagrancy. At the earliest opportunity Undersheriff Dick Lewis will get a statement from the woman, who is lying at St. Joseph's hospital fighting for her life.
